

Congratulations

on being named a 2012 Global Media Award Winner!

JOSN Electronic Co. Ltd.

is among an elite group of companies to receive a Global Media Award.

An esteemed panel of international judges had selected the product below to be recognized.

The voting panel reviewed nearly 2,000 new products that were featured at this year's SEMA Show. Each journalist selected 10 products that would be of most interest to their publications' readers and most likely succeed commercially in their respective countries.

Product Name	Country	Publication (Media Judge)
